Literacy	The Night Before Preschool Talk to your child about what you know about procedures for drop off and pick up.	Henry's Show and Tell Have a family Show and Tell and let every member bring an important object and share why they chose that. You may just learn something new about one another!	The Pigeon HAS to go to School Ask your child if he has any questions about starting school? Show him a picture of his school or drive by the school.	Llama Llama Misses Mama Talk about the things that llama did at school. Come up with a special way that you will say goodbye at school. Consider placing a photograph of your family in your child's bag.	The Kissing Hand Make sure your child understands that even if you aren't together your love is still with him. Consider making a kissing hand for him to keep. Trace his hand and paint or glue a heart in the center.
Phonological Awareness	Play Simon Says. Explain to your child that he must listen very carefully and only obey commands that begin with the words "Simon Says."	Make two letter sounds (sometimes the same sound and other times different sounds). Ask your child to state whether they are the same or different.	Give your child 2-step directions and see if he can follow them. You may need to start with 1 step directions and build to 2 steps (click link for ideas).	Play sound clips from the environment or make them (firetruck siren, airplane, phone ringing, alarm clock, etc.) and see how many your child can identify. Learn about Sounds	Play Red Light/Green Light with animal movements. Challenge your child to listen for commands to go on "green light" and stop on "red light."
Music & Movement	Tiny T-Rex Cosmic Yoga Milkshake	Azukita Zumba Kids 5 Little Monkeys	Kids Workout Emotions Hokey Pokey	Continental Drift with Sid Pop See Ko 3	Shake Your Sillies Out Get Loose
Math & Science	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Find 1 stuffed animal - Find 2 spoons - Find 3 pillows - Find 4 books - Find 5 crayons - Find 6 shoes 	Make popsicles with your favorite juice. Talk about liquids and solids. Time how long it takes for the liquid to change into a solid.	Count how many of each you have in your home? windows chairs doors tables rooms pillows	WARNING: This is a messy science experiment and needs to be done outside. Open a diet coke and drop in Mentos as quickly as possible; then stand back! Mentos Diet Coke Experiment	Pour out a bowl of Fruit Loops or other colored cereal for your child and ask him to sort them by color. Help him count how many of each color he has.
Motor Skills	Give your child a bowl of cooked spaghetti and some kids scissors and tell him to cut the spaghetti into small pieces.	Give your child a large mixing bowl and some clothes pins. Have her clip the clothes pins around the rim of the bowl.	Give your child an empty water bottle and place some cheerios (or similar sized objects) on the counter. Have him pick the cheerios up one at a time and put them in the water bottle.	Roll beans or beads into play dough and ask your child to help get the beads out. Have her try using tweezers to see if it makes the job easier.	Give your child a large bowl of ice and some tongs from the kitchen. Ask him to transfer the ice from one bowl to another. If the tongs are too difficult, let him try using a large spoon.
Social & Emotional	Wemberly Worried After listening to the story, ask, "Can you remember what Wemberly worried about? What did her parents say when she worried? What are some things that we can do when we are worried?"	We Care! Display the poster on your device and discuss with your child ways she cares for herself, others, her school and the world.	Tucker Turtle Takes Time to Tuck and Think Help your child learn the "turtle technique" Tucker uses to stay calm.	Grumpy Bird We all feel grumpy sometimes. Remind your child how each animal in the story began imitating bird as he walked, eventually helping bird forget all about being grumpy. Ask, "What could you do to help a friend who is grumpy?"	Greeting Song for Kids Sing along and practice greeting others and introducing yourself to new people in a variety of ways.
