Music and Movement

Enjoy Going on a Dragon Hunt for a little yoga fun!

Phonological Awareness

The Name Game

Have a sing a-long with this rhyming song.

(Example: For the name "Ella": "Ella, Ella, Bo Bella, Banana Fanna, Fo Fella, Mi My Mo Mella, ELLA, or for "James": "James, James, Bo Bames, Banana Fanna Fo Fames, Mi My Mo Mame, JAMES.)

Literacy

Listen to Dragons Love Tacos

After reading the story ask, "What would you like to do at a taco party?" Have your child draw a picture of his perfect taco party, and on the drawing write the story as your child dictates it to you.

Display the picture and story to share with others.

Math

Have your child continue patterns using forks and spoons that you begin. Start with AB patterns, fork/spoon/fork/spoon. Have her create her own AB pattern. Challenge your child to create or continue other patterns, such as ABC patterns (fork/knife/spoon), and possibly AABB (fork/fork/spoon/spoon) as she is able. (This activity can be done with any household items.)

Fine Motor

Pour a small amount of flour, salt, sand or corn meal onto a cookie sheet or other cooking container with an outer edge. Encourage your child to write letters she sees from a magazine or book.

It also might be fun to draw some pictures.
