Helpful Hints & Tips | TA (SFSP) Edition IX

• Grant Funds Available! •

Good Sports and the Atlanta Falcons Youth Foundation (AFYF) have partnered to offer athletic equipment to community organizations across the state that are working to improve youth fitness, reduce childhood obesity, and promote healthy lifestyles.

The application period to apply for the next round of Good Sports - AFYF equipment donations is currently active and will close May 1, 2015. You can view and submit applications at www.goodsports.org.

If you have questions regarding the the grant or application, email community@goodsports.org.

A second grant opportunity is available through the USDA to school-based SFSP sites for Farm to School or Preschool Initiatives.

The application deadline is May 20, 2015. Institutions or sponsoring organizations interested in applying for the grant can click here for more information.

Refer to the heading “Available Farm to School Grant Program Funding” for information on an upcoming webinar that will explain the application process.

• Expansion Opportunities •

The following 14 counties did not have SFSP meal service in FY 2014 through DECAL or the Department of Education’s Seamless Summer Option (SSO) for schools.

Atkinson	Lanier	Stewart
Bacon	Oconee	Taliaferro
Baker	Pike	Warren
Clinch	Schley	Webster
Columbia	Seminole

If you know of an organization in one of these 14 counties, please mention the SFSP to them or send their name and contact information to Shani Drake, Marketing & Outreach Manager at shani.drake@decals.gov.

Additionally, if you are interested in expanding your reach by taking on library sites, housing authority sites and rural development sites this summer, contact Shani Drake.

Several organizations are looking for sponsors like you to make an impact in their communities!
