

Registration Deadline Approaching for Farm to School and Early Care and Education Summit

The registration deadline for the 7th Annual Georgia Farm to School and Early Care and Education Summit, to be held June 7-8 in Macon, is fast approaching. Registration closes Monday, May 13, 2019.

You won't want to miss this exciting conference where we'll collectively work together to reduce child hunger in Georgia. From field trips to dynamic speakers and quality content, you'll learn how to increase access to healthy meals and expand the implementation of farm to early care and education initiatives across Georgia.

Workshops and education sessions include, but are not limited to:

- Building an Inclusive and Equitable Farm to School Program
- Building Support through Storytelling
- Connecting Organic Agriculture to Ag Education and School Nutrition Culinary Rooted in Georgia
- De la Granja a la Escuela
- Farm to ECE in the Child and Adult Care Food Program, Georgia Early Learning and Development Standards (GELDS) and the Quality Rated Program
- Farmers Markets, Schools, and Centers
- Food Safety and Pest Management in the School Garden
- Growing Gardens Inside the Classroom and Outside in the Schoolyard
- How You Feed Kids Matters
- Literacy Lessons for Growing and Eating
- Local Procurement for CACFP and Summer Feeding Programs
- Purchasing from Your Favorite Farmer
- Transforming School Gardens into STEAM Labs
- Using Cooking Tools with Children

Speakers include representatives from:

- Atlanta Public Schools
- The Captain Planet Foundation
- Children's Healthcare of Atlanta
- Common Market Georgia
- Georgia Department of Agriculture
- Georgia Department of Early Care and Learning
- Georgia Department of Education

- Georgia FoodCorps
- Georgia Organics
- Health Empowers
- Little Ones Learning Center
- National Farm to School Network
- Quality Care for Children
- The Farmer and the Larder
- U.S. Department of Agriculture
- University of Georgia Cooperative Extension
- Urban Sprout Farms
- Various Georgia County School Systems

Click here for a complete list of workshops, sessions, and the program schedule.

For additional information and registration, click on the links below:

- Overview
- Program and Rates
- Registration

The 7th Annual Georgia Farm to School and Early Care and Education is co-hosted by the Georgia Department of Early Care and Learning and Georgia Organics. It is presented by the Georgia Farm to School Alliance and the Georgia Farm to Early Care and Education Coalition.

FOLLOW US

