

Strategies for Creating Classroom Community

Build your classroom community by showing children they are trusted and valued members of the class. Check out these ideas from the Office of Head Start. #GaSEEDSforSUCCESS

Giving Children Responsibilities

Positive descriptive feedback is a strategy that teaches children new skills. This article offers 4 tips for using positive feedback throughout the school day. #GaSEEDSforSUCCESS

4 Tips for Using Positive Descriptive Feedback with Students

“Let’s be friends.” Did you know that you can teach friendship skills across the routines of your day? Check out this resource to learn ways to promote friendship skills. #GaSEEDSforSUCCESS

Promoting Friendship Skills across the Day

Inclusive classrooms benefit ALL children. Take a look at these 4 Habits of Effective Inclusive Educators to help you create a successful inclusive environment in your classroom. #GaSEEDSforSUCCESS

4 Habits of Effective Inclusive Educators