

Taste the State Book List and Local Food Resources

 What's In My Garden? A Food Mystery Book Written by Quality Care for Children and The Ballou Center at the Atlanta Speech School Illustrated by John Flood Jr.	What's In My Garden? A Food Mystery Book This book by Quality Care for Children is based on real-life farmers and child care providers in the Augusta, GA area. Download a copy at https://www.qualitycareforchildren.org/healthy-kids. Learn more about Augusta Locally Grown's farmers market, classes, programs and more at https://www.augustalocallygrown.org/.
 Amara's Farm Written by Jeffery Binkley-McIntosh Illustrated by Amara Hardy	Amara's Farm Join Amara as she searches for pumpkins on her farm. The book guides readers to hunt for visual clues and compare and contrast the characteristics of pumpkins against okra, eggplant, apples, persimmon, and other Georgia produce. Find Georgia pumpkin patches at https://georgiagrown.com/find-georgia-grown/agritourism/corn-mazes-pumpkin-patches/.
 Right This Very Minute A take-a-farm-book about food and farming By Lee M. DeFries Art by Krista Kurlin	Right This Very Minute More than a dozen different types of farms are featured throughout the book, including citrus orchard, peanut farm, strawberry U-Pick farm and more. You can find Georgia's U-Pick farms to plan a spring or summer field trip or family meet-up at https://georgiagrown.com/spring-summer-upick-map/.
 HELLO, WORLD! How DO APPLES GROW? Jill McDonald	How Do Apples Grow? Apples are the October Harvest of the Month. North Georgia is the center of the state's apple industry, with more than 85% grown in Gilmer and Fannin counties. This book illustrates how apples grow from seed to tree to fruit. View the Georgia Grown Apple Farms Map to plan a visit at https://georgiagrown.com/apples-map/.
 BEFORE WE EAT from farm to table Pat Brisson Illustrated by Mary Azarian SECOND EDITION	Before We Eat: From Farm to Table Before we eat, many people work very hard- planting grain, catching fish, tending farm animals, and filling crates of vegetables. This book reminds us of what must happen before food gets to our tables. Find a Georgia Farm Bureau Certified Farm Market at https://www.gfb.org/connect/farm-markets, and support a Georgia farmer.