DECAL Announces Georgia's Pre-K Teachers of the Year for 2022-2023 School Year

Winners from Public School in Baldwin and Private Program in Cumming

ATLANTA, Ga., (September 23, 2022) – The Georgia Department of Early Care and Learning (DECAL) has named its Georgia's Pre-K Teachers of the Year for the 2022-2023 school year just in time for the annual Georgia's Pre-K Week October 3-7, 2022. The public school winner is Shannon Gibson from Baldwin Elementary School in Baldwin, and the private child care center winner is Alaina Jones from Akers Academy in Cumming.

As Pre-K Teachers of the Year, Gibson and Jones each receive $3,000 for themselves, $3,000 for a classroom makeover and supplies, and $1,500 to cover costs while they are out of the classroom representing Georgia's Pre-K Program. Winners serve as ambassadors for Georgia's Pre-K Program by public speaking, representing the program at various meetings, and modeling effective classroom practices.

The winners were selected from six semi-finalists who each received a classroom observation by a DECAL Pre-K Specialist. Each finalist submitted a small group video scored by outside judges, had a classroom observation, and faced a panel for a personal interview.

“Since the beginning of Georgia’s Pre-K Program in 1992, more than 1.8 million children have benefited from the positive experiences they received in Pre-K,” said DECAL Commissioner Amy M. Jacobs. “These benefits, especially in terms of early language and literacy skills and social emotional development, are the result of the efforts of dedicated Pre-K professionals who work with their students every day. Annually recognizing Pre-K Teachers of the Year is one way to thank them for their hard work.”

Among other requirements, candidates for Georgia’s Pre-K Teacher of the Year must have been employed as a Georgia’s Pre-K lead teacher during the 2022-2023 school year, taught as a lead teacher in a Georgia’s Pre-K classroom for a minimum of three years, and must be planning to continue as a lead teacher in a Georgia’s Pre-K classroom during the 2022-2023 school year.

This school year more than 75,000 four year olds are attending Georgia’s Pre-K Program. The voluntary, lottery-funded Pre-K program has been recognized as one of the top programs in the nation, based on quality standards, teacher qualifications, and enrollment.

About Georgia Department of Early Care and Learning

Bright from the Start: Georgia Department of Early Care and Learning is responsible for meeting the child care and early education needs of Georgia’s children and their families. It administers the nationally recognized Georgia’s Pre-K Program, licenses child care centers and home-based child care, administers Georgia's Childcare and Parent Services (CAPS) program, federal nutrition programs, and manages Quality Rated, Georgia’s community powered child care rating system.

The department also houses the Head Start State Collaboration Office, distributes federal funding to enhance the quality and availability of child care, and works collaboratively with Georgia child care resource and referral agencies and organizations throughout the state to enhance early care and education.
